

Vostok Inc.

Shooter/FPS, Strategy/RTS

Intense, polished twin stick shooting meets compelling idle clicker and insane minigame compendium?! Damn right!

It's a casual game for a hardcore audience and a hardcore game for a casual audience.

You're a corrupt, narcissistic yuppie, out to make as much money as possible. Think the Wolf of Wall Street...in Space.

The introduction of an idle clicker metagame into an already deep and satisfying twin stick shooter experience adds a whole extra dimension to the genre. Not to mention it makes the game more addictive than crack.

- 6 solar systems to explore, each with their own bosses, music and collectibles
- An awesome retro-synth adaptive audio system
- Cross save between all your devices. Save on console, continue on mobile.
- 13 minigames including an FPS
- Tamagotchi style virtual managers to keep happy. Feed them Caviar and Champagne for bonuses.
- A massive suite of ship and weapon upgrades to unlock - Over 40 including gravity weapons and time distorters that slow down time

Let's go make some crazy money!
